MA in Philosophy Graduate Program

Master of Arts in Philosophy (MA)

PHILOSOPHIA

MA | PHILOSOPHY

Our MA program in philosophy provides students with the fundamental skills, knowledge and the foundation for careers where logic, critical thinking, and values clarification are prized.

The course develops skilled thinkers who clearly articulate to a modern culture the reasons for belief in the Christian faith. Our curriculum allow students to use philosophy and ethics in evangelism and discipleship ministries, as well as grounding those who seek this degree as a preparation for a research education in philosophy, ethics, religious studies, law, political science and theology.

The course purposes to help the student develop the skills to do philosophy from a Christian worldview. The program is designed to develop the ability to do philosophy in various ministry programs, such as parachurch and local church apologetics as well as to prepare the student for further graduate work in fields such as philosophy, ethics, religious studies, law, political science, and theology.
