

The MBA in Information Technology program provides the structure within which students can appreciate and integrate business management, new software and hardware technologies and extend their theoretical knowledge in specific areas of interest in the industry. Indeed, this program intends to bridge the gap between IT and business.

The program also prepares students to handle significant software development projects and lead teams of information technology experts engaged in design, analysis, implementation, and service delivery. It provides a broad technical understanding of current and growing technologies in the IT field.

Applicants are expected to have a bachelor's degree or postgraduate diploma and basic knowledge in computing. We particularly welcome applicants with undergraduate degrees in business, engineering, library science, information technology, computer science, and related fields.

The thesis

A thesis on a particular topic of your choice (with a Supervisor's approval) will be completed by each student in the last semester. There is considerable scope in the choice of subject areas by the student and the research method employed. Each student is allocated a supervisor who guides them through the thesis. The thesis aims to assimilate the theoretical and practical elements of the academic program of study.

Duration of program: A Semester runs for a period of three months. Our "Master's Degree" programs are completed within the period of four semesters (one year). We allow extension in the period of study, in case your courses could not be completed within the stipulated time frame. No additional fee, no extra charge for extension in the period of study.

How to apply

Prospective student must complete the Admission Form and pay the processing fee of $45 USD or its equivalent. The processing fee is refundable if admission is denied.
